Dedication

The Prom, money, graduation, Senior Party, privileges, Frolics, dances, sockhops, class meetings, and numerous wild and impractical ideas--these are just a few of the many things that we have gone to Miss Kennedy with, and she has responded with patience, humor, and open-mindedness.

In deep appreciation, the class of 1968 dedicates the MITOBO to Miss Kennedy.

Anadyomene

Anadyomene, the mystical underwater Grecian city, opened its gates for the 1967 Junior-Senior Prom, June 2. An underwater theme was decided upon, thus the name Anadyomene, which means the "Rising up of the sea," was chosen.

The underwater Grecian city was bordered with columns offset with a fountain. Special lighting gave the illusion of being in the midst of the depths of the sea.

Queen: Rita Hurd, Court: Christine Ackerman, Beth Johnson, Annette Montgomery, Cheri Quimby, Janet Sawyer, and Linda Shipley.

This year Thanksgiving was again preceded by the traditional junior-senior Powder Puff tussle. The female members of each class carried through some particularly brilliant strategies masterminded by captains Roseanne Gianelli and Cindy Bullens. Tina Frizzell and Patricia Eremian displayed exceptional accuracy in their passing ability. Both sides claimed a technical victory at a 0-0 tie.

Our thanks go to the cheerleaders and band for their inspiration and rousing cheers.

Mr. Vlahos supplied excellent harmony on the base drum.

You Can't Take It With You

On December 8 and 9, 1967, Masconomet presented the first play of the season, YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU by Moss Hart and George Kaufman. Under the direction of Miss Jean Jarvie, the cast turned in two fine performances. Special thanks go to the technical crews for their invaluable assistance.

Along with exercising the voice, singers is a great deal of fun, patience, and work.

Kaleidoscope

Kaleidoscope, Masconomet's literary magazine, is published twice each school year and affords the creative student the chance for the display and publication of his art and literary works. The magazine again this year was proud to receive the New England Press Association Award for the fourth consecutive year, for excellence in the field of high school publication. This year's staff, under the supervision of Miss Reynolds, are, Editor-in-Chief, Pamela Pinkham; Prose Editor, Steve Comack; Poetry Editor, Mary McArdle; and Art Editor, Christine Ackerman.

Sock Hops

Friday nights after the raucous jeers and cheers for the basketball team have died down, the Masconomet gymnasium doors close while janitors converge with brooms. Floors are swept--ZIP ZAP--the bleachers stashed away. The doors reopen as sanctuary for the restless teens who seek out excitement rather than going home, walking the streets, or driving to the DINER.

Meanwhile, the thronging crowds have jammed the halls, surrendered their shoes to numbered shelves and are clamoring to be let in for their weekend exercise. Boys gather on one side and girls on the other. Music of "newcomer" groups, who are sometimes of questionable talent, blast into the eager ears of a throng around the band. A few brave boys and girls shock all by dancing together as eager eyes beg the clocks to tick faster. At the magic hour--11:00--the lights flash on, the crowds stream out, and another sock hop becomes history.

Pep Squad

Many thanks and cheers should be given to our faithful girls of the Pep Squad. They've done a great job cheering our teams on to victory (or otherwise!), looking great in their red and white colors, showing up faithfully at every game, and boosting our spirits at the rallies.

Math Team

In the first meet of the year the "Mathletes" (Heh Heh) scored a league record of 182 points. The team is to be commended for tolerating the hare-brained victory schemes of it's advisor, Teunis Paarlberg, and it's captain.

Fiorello--Glenn Shields; Leads--Marilynn Carlton, Dora; Steve Polkou, Cop; Gail Dunphy, Mrs. Fiorello; Bonnie Wade, secretary to Fiorello, 2nd wife.

Unicorn

The UNICORN, originally known as the REPAPSWEN, originated this year as Masconomet's school newspaper through the efforts of the journalism class. The monthly publication, under the direction of Mr. Constantino, attempted to combine school-oriented news, sports write-ups, and humor into an interesting communication media that would appeal to both students and faculty. Bruce Chapin, editor; Pam Smith, assistant editor; Karen Mokler, art editor; and a staff of fourteen; all contributed to the newspaper.

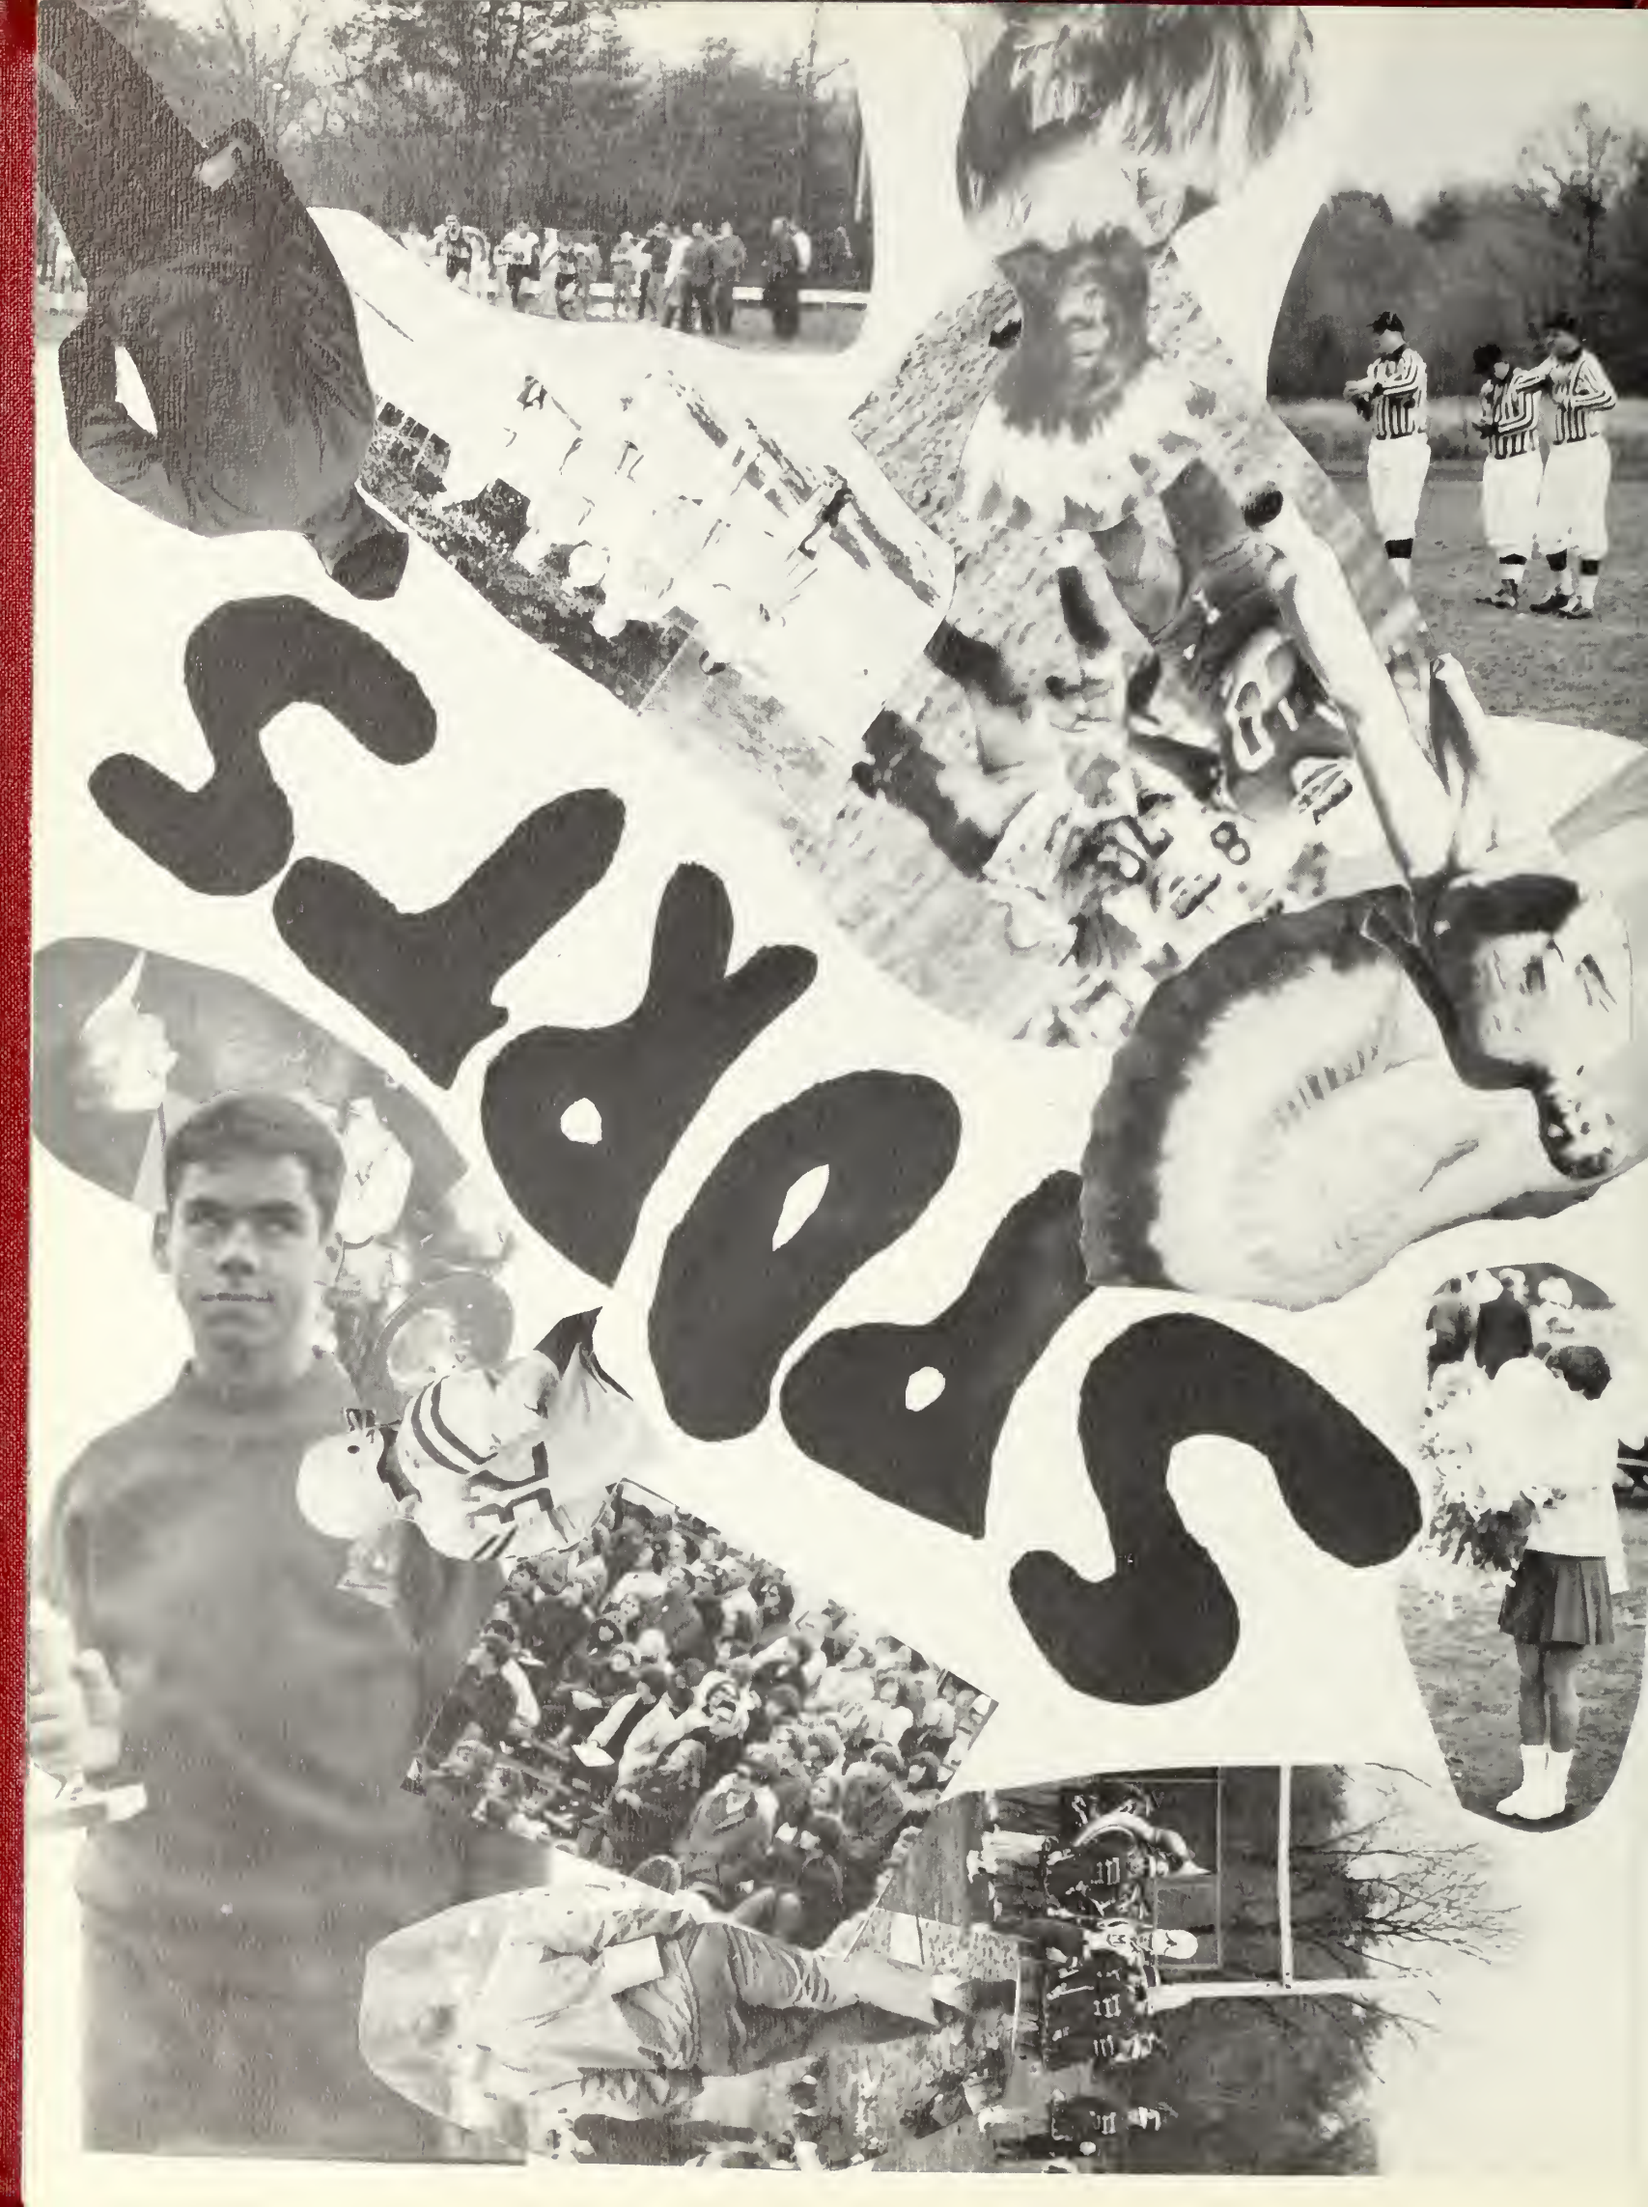
They have parties and invite guests to speak about different careers in the business field.

House Two Chorus

The House Two Chorus, a younger version of the Singers, consists of the ninth and tenth grade. Last year, Singers doubled in size, so the Chorus was started this year. There are about eighty students in the group. The Chorus participates and functions basically the same as Singers, but they are coming into their own as a name. The group is under the direction of Miss Jean Jarvie.

Future Nurses Club

The Future Nurse's Club consists of a group of girls interested in the field of nursing. Through listening to speakers and going on various field trips, they learn about the different aspects of nursing.



SPORTS

Football

In tough competition with other North Shore schools, the Masconomet Chieftains ploughed their way to a 3 win, 6 loss record. The highlight of the season was the Ipswich game, in which an injury-ridden Masco team showed superb defensive strength, winning 2-0 by virtue of Charlie Taft's blocking a Tiger punt in the end zone.

Next year's backfield promises to be quite talented, as only three players-Tony Wyner, Danny Eremian, and Stu Hall--will graduate, leaving Lenny Dwinnel, Jeff Begin, Flip Roland, and Chad Dresser. The front line will lose Charlie Taft, Eric Schmitt, Scott Mayo, Pete Watson, and Bob Dehmer.

This is the sixth straight CAL crown for the boys and they have won the CAL open for seven consecutive years. These records speak for themselves seeing that the league has only been in existance for eight years.

Hockey Team

The 1967-1968 Chieftains Hockey Team had a very successful season with a Merrimac valley league record of 7-4-3 and an overall record of 10-5-3.

The Co-Captains for this years team were Steve Crowe and Dan Eremian. Both members of the Senior Class. The other members of the hockey team are: Charlie Taft, James Dugan, Gregg Kimball, and Steve Moore. Les Peckham, Bob Mailey, Graham Chadwick, Chris Poor, Scott Cole, Jeff Ackerman, Ken Castner, Don Hennigar, and Peter Masse . . . Jeff Begin.

Girls Gymnastics Team

Girls' record was 4 wins, 5 losses. The girls who are eligible to participate in the state meets are: Carol Pavesi; Leah Osborne; and Tina Frizzell. These girls qualify for this event by their skillful performances of difficult moves on the horse and trampoline. Other events include free exercise, bars, and beam. The girls are judged on the difficulty of the stunt, its execution form and general appearance of routine. Much of the credit is due to the new coach, Miss Finnigan.

Girls' Basketball

In Masconomet athletic adventures this year a rollicking new act was introduced--the girls' basketball team. The hilarious antics of its members brought cheers and chuckles from the crowds in the bleachers. The heartening efforts made by the group to entertain its fans were emphasized by the numerous victories (of their rivals). Special recognition should be given to the captain Lag's screams and humerous comments which brought thundering applause and to Ed Koenig for being a loyal spectator and team mascot--"They may not win many but they're such a joy to watch."

We would especially like to thank Miss Talbot for her patience, understanding, and dedication during the '68 season.

Blues Facing Northwest

It seemed like the snow would never stop falling. Huge drifts were piled over cars and against kitchen windows. The wind bit through heavy winter coats, forcing even city kids to stay inside. Only sand and plow trucks were moving.

One battered, orange truck plodded up 38th Street. Turning the corner by "Poxie's Bar" it slammed head on into a drift, scattering snow and rubbish and something else. Something, some . . . the truck driver threw open the cab door and jumped down. Nearly up to his waist in snow, he pushed to the front of the truck. Hot pains ran through his icy fingers.

Jimmie Brad's old man had been found, dead, and frozen solid, and still smelling of whiskey.

When they brought him to the hospital morgue, I was just being born.
